Dear Parents and Guardians,

Photographs - Many thanks to Graham and Susie, the photographers who have done a fabulous job of taking photographs today. As always they ensured that the children stayed calm and cheerful. We look forward to seeing some lovely photographs. Thank you to Karen Miller for her organisation.

From Mrs. Tizzard - I don't seem to have any excuses this year so I am finally running a Marathon. Unfortunately I am unable to now do the London one but will be doing the same distance in Brighton the week before (15th April). If you would like to raise money for my charity or just give me a boost on those cold nights training you can sponsor me at //uk.virginmoneygiving.com/DianeTizzard or you can give money to the school office. I am supporting The Railway Children which supports vulnerable children in the UK and across the world. Thank you.

Class assembly dates

Parent Reps Reminder- There will be a Parent Reps meeting next Friday, 3rd February, at 9am in the staff room. Please let the office know if you will or will not be attending.

Great Ormond Street Hospital Christmas Appeal- A letter has been received from Great Ormond Street Hospital thanking the school for the donation of £53.24 made to their Christmas Appeal, following the collections made in school in December. Thank you for your support.

Lost Property - There are a few items of lost property which have been handed into the office which are too small to place in with the lost uniform. Please collect these items from the office if they belong to you, or they will be thrown away (or sold on eBay) at half term.

These are:

- Pair of gold framed glasses
- Casio digital watch with pink strap
- Ravel analogue watch with a blue webbing strap with a football on it
- Alexander analogue watch with stainless steel strap
- Red scoobits scooter strap
- Gold coloured Yale door key (Timpson's) on a brown leather heart shaped fob inscribed with 'Blondie Mania'
- Silver coloured bracelet
- Gold coloured 6 star 'sheriff's' 'type badge with 'limited edition' and a picture of a teddy bear.

Regards,
